

WORKING MEN TO BEGIN REVOLUTION AGAINST THE BOURBON DYNASTY

Will March at Daybreak on Barcelona in Effort to Establish Republic in Proud Old Spain

BARCELONA, Nov. 4.—The working men of Sanadel voted tonight to march upon Barcelona at daybreak to start a revolution against the Bourbon dynasty and establish a republic.

Fights between the industrial strikers and strikebreakers are occurring hourly. The authorities are powerless to prevent bloodshed and have appealed to Madrid for reinforcements.

The utmost excitement prevails here. The authorities appear unable to control even a portion of the rioters, who are parading on the streets. Surrounding towns have caught the insurrection spirit. It is predicted there will be much bloodshed when the troops arrive.

It is not known, following the report from Madrid that Weyler has ordered his soldiers here, whether the "Butcher" will personally command them or not. He is intensely hated and feared here and it is believed his presence alone will have a deterrent effect on the rioters.

Columns of Republicans are shouting for the downfall of King Alfonso and "Death to Royalists."

BUTCHER WEYLER IS TO MOBILIZE 40,000 TROOPS

MADRID, Nov. 4.—In response to urgent appeals from the authorities at Barcelona Captain General "Butcher" Weyler has ordered the mobilization of forty thousand troops at Barcelona. Reinforcements will be started from here immediately. Weyler has ordered the officers to suppress any demonstration at any cost.

REPORT THAT ALFONSO IS DEAD PUBLISHED IN STAR

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The Star this morning published the report that King Alfonso had been assassinated, but the report is still uncredited here.

Reuters news agency says the Spanish monarch is at Ciudad Real, seventeen miles from Madrid on a hunting expedition.

BATTLE FOUGHT ON PERSIAN SOIL

England Blocks Plans of Russia and Effects An Alliance

TEHERAN, Nov. 4.—A pitched battle between invading English troops, landed under protection of a warship, and the Persian troops occurred today at Kish on the straits of Ormuz. Many were reported as killed on both sides and the commander of the English cruiser "Proserpine" was wounded.

The conflict is reported to have been the result of a British attempt to frustrate what they believe is a Persian and Russian coalition to provide Russia with an outlet on the Indian ocean. It was feared that strained relations between England and Russia might result from the fray.

The battle followed an attack by the Persian troops on the English soldiers as they landed ostensibly for the "purpose of protecting the British sphere of influence in Persia."

Rumors are spreading that the affair will not cause any differences between Russia and England, but that both have agreed upon a plan for the division of Persia. The capital was excited by the news of the fighting.

CONSIDER PLANS TO STOP FLOODS IN IMPERIAL VALLEY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—President Taft, Secretary Ballinger and Judge Lovett representing the Southern Pacific, conferred this afternoon over a plan for a co-operative campaign by the railroad and government to prevent the annual floods in the Imperial Valley, California. President Taft stated that they must confer with the Mexican ambassador before any definite plan can be announced, because the Colorado river flows through foreign soil.

Arrested in Phoenix After Talk on How Times Building
Was Dynamited

PHOENIX, Nov. 4.—A man giving his name as Ed. Gilham was arrested today and held pending an investigation of his story that he is alleged to have told regarding the Times dynamiting in Los Angeles.

According to Chief of Police Moore the man was heard to say the dynamiting was a conspiracy of seventeen men, including himself, and that a Frenchman named Embray was selected by lot to place the explosive.

While in jail today the man declared that he was intoxicated last night and might have made the statement the police attributed to him, but that there was no truth in it. Chief Moore wired Los Angeles authorities for instructions.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4.—Fourteen new witnesses have been subpoenaed to appear before the special grand jury investigating the Times case. During the morning session the witnesses examined included Chief of Police Galloway, J. Flynn, packer, Miss C. E. Briggs, laboratory assistant of the Giant Powder Works near San Francisco, where the dynamite alleged to have been used was secured.

JURYMEN REFUSE TO SIT WITH DEADLY DYNAMITE

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4.—Fifteen sticks of dynamite, comprising the "load" of the infernal machine found beneath the Zehandalar home on October 1st, caused an excitement in the court house when Detective Holm brought the explosive for an exhibit before the grand jury.

The jurors refused to permit the dynamite to be stored in the jury room, according to report. Holm carried the dangerous stuff gingerly into a vacant room and guarded it throughout the morning. The jury continued hearing evidence, Earl Rogers serving as prosecutor.

JUAREZ TRIAL IS SET FOR DECEMBER FIRST

Martin Juarez is to be tried Dec. 1 on the charge of murdering Jose Garcia on Oct. 29. District Attorney Davis filed the information in the superior court this morning. E. E. Keach was appointed by the court to defend Juarez, who pleaded not guilty, and the trial was set for Dec. 1. Juarez stabbed Garcia during a quarrel in the West Anaheim section.

HAYS WARNS VALLADARES

Will Bombard Amalapa Customs House if Americans
Are Molested

SAN SALVADOR, Nov. 4.—It is expected the Honduran revolution will reach a crisis within forty-eight hours.

Commander Hays of the American gunboat "Princeton," has notified Commandant Valladares that the first overt act against any American interest or life will result in the bombardment of the Amalapa customs house by the "Princeton."

The gunboat's batteries will be immediately trained on the customs house and the warship's decks cleared for action. Commandant Hays' statement followed Valladares' declaration that he would kill American Consul Shmuck.

ROOSEVELT DINED WITH AUTHOR AND LATER MADE SPEECH

DAVENPORT, Ia., Nov. 4.—Octave Thanet (Alice French), the novelist and author, breakfasted with Col. Roosevelt. The Colonel arrived on a special train at 2 o'clock this morning and emerged from the car at 7. During the morning he spoke for Charles Grikis, the congressional candidate, starting for Des Moines at noon, where he will speak at a "harmony" meeting of standpatters and insurgents.

RAKES WALL STREET AND TAMMANY AT DAVENPORT

DAVENPORT, Ia., Nov. 4.—In an address here Col. Roosevelt discussed the dissensions in the Republican ranks caused by the tariff.

"After the turmoil is over," he said, "the party will be found undivided in its support of the progressive idea. It is now practically a unit for a tariff commission."

Bitterly assailing Tammany and Wall street, the Colonel said:

"I don't think they will win in this fight, but if they do we will beat them next time. We are enlisted for war and a temporary backset will not stop the movement."

En route to Des Moines Roosevelt made a dozen speeches from the car platform.

APPEAL TO THE CIVIC PRIDE OF SANTA ANA

Hugh C. Gibson, the general secretary of the Southern California Sunday School Association, says that the coming state convention to be held here Nov. 9, 10 and 11, will be the biggest and best ever held in Southern California, and for Santa Ana to be prepared for 1200 delegates.

The entertainment committee has places promised for 850 delegates, which means that they want 350 more places. Santa Ana must rise to the occasion, for the growth and reputation of a city depend upon its ability to live up to whatever it undertakes—in other words, to be able to deliver the goods. Santa Ana people are certainly as hospitable as those of Riverside and Pomona, therefore, everybody is asked to help, for the reputation of Santa Ana is at stake. Lodging and breakfast are all that are being asked for, as the Ebells ladies will help by furnishing splendid dinners and suppers for 35 cents a meal at the Rossmore Hotel and at the Central building opposite the city hall. Mrs. W. M. Smart, chairman of the entertainment committee, will gladly receive offers of help in the way of entertainment or money to provide entertainment.

Hiram W. Johnson Issues Final Word

To the People of California:

In this, the closing hour of the campaign, I have only words of good cheer for those who have fought so faithfully and earnestly for a free state and a government of equal forty years have struggled against a corruption. To the people who forerondition of political bondage under the domination of a corrupt political bureau, I give the message of victory well and fairly won. It only remains to count the votes and is but a question of half a hundred thousand or a whole hundred thousand under which the malign forces that have sought to retain their hold upon the state government shall be buried.

Ours has been the people's battle and the response that has met our efforts has fully sustained that supreme confidence in the people that has been the basis of this campaign. Our opponents have, by their utterances and the means they have employed, made the alignment in this struggle so plain that the situation is fully understood from one end of the state to the other. There is complete realization that the one hope of eliminating the special interests from the government of the commonwealth lies in the success of the movement that has accomplished this work in the Republican party. Every corrupt influence, every foe to civic decency, every reactionary interest, has been enlisted in the effort to defeat the purpose of the campaign that began eight months ago. That is as it should be. On the one side have been the men who have plundered the people, seeking to retain the power to continue their plunder. On the other side have been the people seeking their political freedom.

Every form of calumny, every possible means of vilification, every degree of mendacity has been resorted to by those seeking to divert the people from the plain issue before them. This campaign of calumny, vilification and mendacity with which the closing days of the canvass has been filled, has been fully understood and has reacted upon the heads of those responsible for its introduction.

At no time have I sought votes upon my personality or upon any assumed service in the past. I have pledged my efforts to drive out of the state government the influence of William F. Herrin and the Southern Pacific railroad, and that pledge I will keep. That was our purpose at the beginning of the primary campaign, and that is our purpose at the close of the electoral canvass. At no time have I permitted any doubt upon that point; at no time have I allowed any lure of office to diminish the force of that crusade.

Yours was the fight that you entrusted to my hands by your votes at the primary election, and it was with a solemn sense of duty and a full appreciation of the grave responsibility that I accepted the trust. I have kept the faith thus far. I will continue to keep the faith, and I will make this government, after January next, a government of yourselves and a government of all the people of California.

STRIKE LEADERS READY FOR WORK

Unions Over Country Notified to Obey Orders That May Involve 100,000

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Following the failure of the teamsters' strike leaders and the officials of the express companies to reach an agreement yesterday at their conference, a mass meeting of union teamsters was called for this afternoon.

The meeting may result in a general strike affecting from 30,000 to 100,000 men. The strike leaders refuse to reveal their plans for the meeting.

President Daniel Tobin of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, arrived today. He indicated that he is preparing to call a general strike throughout the country if it becomes necessary. He said the teamsters' organizations had all been ordered to prepare for a strike, and all were ready to heed the order if he deems it advisable to issue it. Tobin declared the strike must end within a few days if other cities are to escape its results. He arrived in time to attend this afternoon's mass meeting of the strikers.

QUAKER CITY FACES STRIKE OF CARMEN

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—As a result of a deadlock in an attempt to arbitrate the demands of the employees of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company, it is expected a strike will be called within forty-eight hours. The executive committee of the Carmen's Union conferred this afternoon, and predictions of a strike were freely made.

In Campaign

R. Y. Williams, chairman of the Republican County Central Committee, is confident that Orange county will poll a big Republican vote and that in Orange county the entire ticket will carry. Of course, so far as the state is concerned, he is confident that Johnson will be elected. "Orange county is Republican by a big majority," said he, "and every man on the ticket is capable and clean. That being the case there is no reason why Republicans should scratch their tickets. The county ticket deserves the support of the party, and I am confident that it will get that support on Tuesday."

A meeting of the county central committee will be held here tomorrow to make final arrangements for election day work. The central committee has been doing quiet, effective work both for the state and the county tickets.

SECONDS PLAY ANAHEIM TEAM

Those Who Take the Bumps
Are to Have a Game of Their Own

The second team of the high school gets a try-out tomorrow afternoon against Anaheim at Anaheim. The seconds have worked faithfully against the regulars, getting the bumps and bruises of practice without the fun of match games.

It is probable that two or three more second team games will be arranged. The game of next Saturday may be a double header, Pasadena bringing down a second team.

An attempt is being made by Bertrand West, manager of the seconds to secure a game with the seconds of Long Beach.

The line-up will be: Cain, L. E.; Barto, L. T.; Swanner, L. G.; Smiley, C.; Visel, R. G.; Greeley, R. T. Timmons and Morrison, R. C.; Tedford, Q.; West, L. H.; Eaton and Robinson, R. H.; Warren, F.

Captain Reeves will act as referee. Lutz will referee at the same time a game between Orange and Fullerton at Fullerton.

On Saturday the first team will play Pomona college at Claremont. While it is hardly expected that the team can win the game, the boys expect to make the college men earn all they get.

The line up will be changed from that of Saturday due to the absence of W. Reeves and to the fact that Menges of last year's team has joined the squad. Walton will be shifted from right to right end, Menges taking the back position.

The trip will likely be made in autos, which will be much more pleasant for the team. Mr. Bartlett hopes to be able to accompany the boys and Coach Ratcliffe tomorrow.

It Proves Beyond Dispute

That the automobile is undoubtedly an economy. That its low cost of operation surprises even its advocates. That the extravagance of the motor car is voluntary and unnecessary. That its pleasures are within the reach of men of moderate means. That it is an indispensable factor in transportation and a utility. That it is an implement which, if properly employed, will increase the earning power of man, conserve his time, extend his field and support his hands. That the automobile industry, practically unknown ten years ago and now the fourth greatest industry in the United States, is fully vindicated and proven economically sound. That the Maxwell car is the standard of that industry; the efficient, economical, reliable, utility automobile, as near perfection as human intelligence and human handwork can make it under modern conditions.

Test Officially Sanctioned by the American Automobile Association

We invited the Contest Board of the American Automobile Association to conduct this test in order that it might be in absolutely disinterested control. The board appointed judges to attest its results. The two vehicles ran each day over a predetermined route. Each ran continuously for six hours, regarded as a normal day's work. Account was kept of every item of expense entailed. The needs of each vehicle were supplied at roadside stores at current market prices. Each day a different route was laid out, in order to cover all conditions of city and suburban traffic and all sorts of roads. One day they covered the densely congested districts of the city; another day they ran in infrequently traveled suburban roads. Everything was done to make the test normal, actual, efficiently fair and conclusive.

The Results Attested by Its Judges

The automobile cost 68-100 of a cent per passenger mile to operate. The horse and buggy cost 144-100 of a cent per passenger mile. The car covered 2½ times the distance traveled by the horse. The car averaged 76 3-10 miles a day at a cost of $1.03. The horse averaged 32 9-10 miles a day at a cost of 95 cents.

The car required 5½ gallons of gasoline and a pint of lubricant daily. The horse needed 12 quarts of oats and 20 pounds of hay per day. The other expenses—tire cost, up-keep and depreciation or similar charges brought the total cost of the car up to 18-10 cents per passenger mile, as shown in the table above. The other incident expenses of maintaining a horse and buggy brought its total cost up to 2½ cents per passenger mile as shown in the table above.

This is our answer to the charge made that the automobile is an extravagance. This proves that it is an economic factor that would save millions if the Maxwell were everywhere substituted for the horse and buggy.

We have always been unable to fill orders promptly in the spring and summer. In order to stimulate early season business all these cars sold during the next 30 days will be

GROWTH CALLS FOR BUILDING

Anaheim Moving Ahead—Her
School Facilities Are to be Increased

ANAHEIM, Nov. 3.—This city is growing so rapidly that the school facilities are not in proportion to the demand. The board, at the last meeting, agreed to submit to the people at a special election the proposition of issuing bonds in the sum of $40,000 for the erection of a school building. As the need is readily apparent, there is reason to believe the proposition will easily carry.

The Public Library trustees are endeavoring to discover who broke four large windows in the building two nights ago, and also the whereabouts of a rare and valuable old coin, which belonged to a display of curios loaned by a well-known veteran.

Robert E. Fisher, aged 21 years, youngest son of Mrs. Clara Fischer, died at his home in this place of pneumonia.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. Reo Defeats all Competitors in Kansas City Star, Reliability Run---20 or More Higher Priced Cars Competed Reo finished with the best record in the Kansas City Star 9-day reliability run. Among the cars which the Reo defeated in this classic run were three cars in the $4000 class; two in the $2500 class; fifteen in the $2000 class and thirteen costing less down to its own class. Among the cars defeated in this contest were the Franklin, Stoddard-Dayton, Jackson, Stevens-Duryea, Speedwell, Kissel Kar, Haynes, Interstate, Buick, Great Western, Auburn, Maxwell, Mitchell, Regal and several others of greater or less note.

With a brilliant record such as the above, coupled with its lowering the world's record on August 18, 1910, between New York and San Francisco, by nearly five days, the Reo has won a prestige second to none in the world. Current inquiries for the Reo already indicate that our 1911 sales will double the enormous sales of 1910—REO DEEDS SPEAK LOUDER THAN THE WORDS OF ITS COMPETITORS!

Here's a Platform on Which You Can Stand

By its platform adopted at the Republican state convention, held at San Francisco, September 6, 1910, the Republican party stands for:

The elimination from the politics of the state of the influence of the Southern Pacific Railroad company's political bureau.

Economy, efficiency, business-like methods, and uniform accounting in state and county government.

Protection to American industries measured by the difference in labor cost at home and abroad, to be determined by a non-partisan permanent tariff commission.

Conservation of the natural resources of the state and nation.

The initiative, referendum, and recall in state and county government.

Regulation of railroads and determination of the physical valuation of railroad properties as a basis for rate fixing.

The establishment by the federal government of a Panama-Pacific steamship line similar to the one plying on the Atlantic coast.

Revision and simplification of criminal procedure in the interests of speedy and certain justice.

Election of United States senators by direct vote of the people.

The restoration of the true Australian ballot.

A shorter ballot to relieve confusion of voters.

Simplification of the state primary election law.

Establishment of a reformatory for first offenders.

A square deal for capital and labor.

Introduction of the merit system in the public service.

Opposition to further admission of Oriental laborers.

Aid to the San Francisco World's Fair.

Improvements of our roads and harbors.

ROOSEVELT APPEALS TO "EVERY GOOD CITIZEN" TO SUPPORT JOHNSON

I feel that we have a right to appeal to every good citizen to support us in California, for failure to elect Johnson would be a blow to good citizenship.

I earnestly hope that you will win. I only wish I could be in platform and candidates you are your ticket, for both as regards platform and candidates you are entitled to the heartiest support, and it will be a setback to good government all over the country if your candidates are not elected.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

The Scotts' pretty bungalow was decorated with great bouquets of tarry white chrysanthemums, which were much admired during the progress of the whist games, that constituted the entertainment for the afternoon.

At the conclusion of the games, Mrs. Scott, assisted by Mrs. Vanderast, Mrs. Grubb and Misses Greeba and Josephine Scott, served a most delicious luncheon, consisting of a meat salad, wafers, olives, ice cream, cake and coffee.

Mrs. Chas. Kelley was the lucky winner of the first prize, a handsome Japanese sugar and cream set, while he consolation, a carved nut bowl, fell to Mrs. L. J. Carden.

Parliamentary Club

This club meeting yesterday at the residence of Mrs. I. D. Mills, was highly entertained and instructed by the address made by ex-Senator John S. Anderson on "Processes By Which a Bill Becomes a Law." Senator Anderson spoke with authority, having had experience as a law maker through two regular and two special sessions of the legislature of California. He embellished the more serious talk with anecdotes of his own and others' experience. A risk for his round trip fare from Los Angeles vote of thanks was given Senator Anderson for his illuminating and entertaining address.

The next meeting of this section will be held at Mrs. Mills's home on Thursday, Dec. 8.

needed a citizenship that places principle above party name.—James A. Johnston, Former Supervisor.

I favor the election of Hiram Johnson because I believe that his election will, more certainly than would that of his opponent, insure the political emancipation of the state of California, for which all right-minded citizens of the state are sincerely solicitous. I think he ought to have the ardent support of voters irrespective of party.—Henry Eickhoff.

VOTE THE TICKET STRAIGHT

The Register has a very decided opinion as to the high duty and great privilege of Republicans of Orange county at the polls next Tuesday. They should vote their party ticket straight, from top to bottom, state, county and township. And this applies with equal force to "insurgents" and to "regulars."

If there be those in the ranks of either wing of the party who do not like this or that state or county candidate, politically or personally, they are reminded that ALL the candidates were nominated at the polls, that every voter had a fair chance to express his choice by means of the Direct Primary. This should appeal especially to the insurgents who fathered and furthered the Direct Primary and won a signal victory under its operation. The regulars, too, cannot consistently do otherwise than support the whole ticket—that is the essence of real and true regularity.

But aside from this—and to speak right out in meeting,—neither wing of the party can afford to do any knifing—certainly no honorable man will. There are many candidates from both sides on the ticket. The insurgents on the one hand are insisting on the regulars standing by Smith and Jones and Brown, who are insurgents; therefore the insurgents must stand by Bill, John and Harry, who are regulars.

And of course it works the other way round. To be perfectly plain, the regulars cannot consistently urge the insurgents to support some of the county candidates unless they themselves are willing to stand loyally by the head of the ticket and other insurgent state candidates.

But above all these considerations is that of maintaining the integrity of the party—the Grand Old Party—in this hour of trial. If party means anything, if personal honor is held sacred, then Republicans should vote their ticket straight.

A. J. Wallace has proved himself a man capable of rendering great and valuable services to the people. His rare financial ability and high character make him a man peculiarly fitted for the office of Lieutenant Governor and presiding officer of the State Senator. The people of the state cannot afford to have him defeated.

No matter how much he may admire Bell; no matter how much he may have confidence in his leadership, the independent voter must cast his ballot for Johnson if he desires to make his vote count heavily for the moral regeneration of California.—Charles Wesley Reed.

Every reactionary in the United States would throw up his hat at Johnson's defeat. The defeat of Johnson would spell defeat for the progressive cause, not only in California, but all over the United States.—William Allen White, Editor Emporia Gazette.

To the Voters of Santa Ana Township
The following facts relative to the election of Justice of the Peace in this township are made public because it is surely necessary that the voters should know which of the several candidates who aspire to that office is best qualified to perform its duties satisfactorily to the people of said township and Orange county:

As to Mr. H. M. Seymour, who is running as an independent candidate, the following can be truthfully said:

First. That on the 4th day of May, 1865, after being duly examined by three Justices of the Supreme Court of the state of New York, he was regularly admitted as an attorney of said state.

Second. That on the 25th day of May, 1865, he received his diploma from the law university of Albany, New York.

Third. That in November, 1865, he located in the village (now city) of Salamana, New York, and practiced his profession until October, 1880. During that time he was Justice of the Peace for eight consecutive years, with much more legal business than we have had in this township in the same length of time.

In September of that year, his office, library and furniture were burned, excepting his safe and its contents, together with the best and most of the business part of the city. He closed up his business as well as he could, turned over the untold cases to a good lawyer, collected a few outstanding claims, and came out to this valley to visit an uncle, aunt

SocietyA Surprise

A very complete and pleasant surprise was given Martin Warren at his home last evening at 814 Parton street, by the postoffice force. The complimented young man is a clerk in the postoffice and the occasion was his twenty-first birthday. The employees of the postoffice and their wives and families, headed by Postmaster Shaw, went in a body to the home and took Martin completely by surprise. After recovering somewhat from his surprise, he invited the friends into the house and a most pleasant time was enjoyed until a late hour.

Mrs. Warren, knowing of the expected company, had prepared a large birthday cake on which was placed twenty-one candles. A great deal of amusement was afforded the young people by trying to blow out the candles. Games, music and pleasant conversation occupied the evening and were followed by delicious refreshments of ice cream, cake and home made candy. Before the guests took their leave Postmaster Shaw gave young Mr. Warren another surprise by presenting him with a handsome set of military brushes, which was accepted in appropriate words of appreciation.

Those present were Postmaster Shaw, wife and family, Mr. L. H. Harvey, wife and children, J. E. Alexander and wife, Sam Vogt and wife, Ward Ditchey and wife, Charles Winans, wife and children, Joe Thompson, Will Lindsey and wife, Mrs. Birt, Mrs. Harris.

The Woman's Club (Communicated)

How could the Woman's Club help having an interesting meeting when Mrs. Carrie Bent divided her "round table" into sections and chose Mrs. Gale and Mrs. Marks to assist her in drawing out the best things the members had stored away on "Hygiene in the Home," "Non-essentials" and "Meatless Diet."

What the women didn't know on these subjects, I venture to say, would not add much to good housekeeping. And so interested did they become in giving one another the best they had to give, that the time for adjournment passed, and their president, Mrs. Ey, brought out the club's Christmas box for the Indians, and then had hard work to drag them away from "Household Economics" to remind them that they must bring their contributions for the box to the next meeting to be held at the Ey home on Nov. 15.

W. R. C. Meeting

The W. R. C. met in regular session yesterday afternoon with a good attendance. Mrs. Emma J. Dillingham assistant department inspector, was present, and the ritualistic work of the corps was exemplified thoroughly under her supervision. Mrs. Dillingham spoke in the highest terms of the work of the corps and its president, Mrs. Henacy.

Several visitors were present from Huntington Beach and Orange, and refreshments were served during intermission.

On account of the State Sunday School convention the usual monthly tea was postponed until Friday, Nov. 18. It will be given for the benefit of the W.R.C. Home in Evergreen, California.

Farewell Picnic for Mrs. Tresslar

Like Mohamet and the mountain, if one cannot go to the woods for a picnic, the woods must be made to come to them. So one resourceful hostess, Mrs. A. W. Rutan, wishing to give a farewell for Mrs. F. P. Tresslar, soon to leave to make her home in Los Angeles, waved her fairy wand, and the party leading from her house to a loft in a detached building, was strewn with leaves and pine needles, the loft became a woody nook, overhung with pine boughs and clambering vines, the floor, covered with rugs and cushions, on which the picnicers sat and played whist, afterward lunching from boxes which they had had a merry hunt for in the dining room.

One of the most enjoyable features of the picnic was the instrumental and vocal music given by Mrs. Parr and her niece, Miss Willie Davis.

Others present were the honoree, Mrs. F. P. Tresslar, Mrs. Geo. Briggs, Mrs. F. O. Daniel and Miss Daniel, Mrs. L. A. Bradshaw, Mrs. Myron Finch.

Shirtwaist Club

The Shirtwaist Club had a charming afternoon yesterday with Mrs. Chas. Johnson, whose cosy home was prettily decorated with roses and potted plants.

Music, sewing, conversation and the enjoyment of dainty refreshments were the features of the afternoon. Those who participated in the pleasures of the club meeting were Mesdames E. K. Gearhart, Avrea Hall, Robert Dubois, E. R. Majors, Claude Congdon, Lloyd Wade, Chas. Claytor, Frank Young and Fred Chapman. Mrs. Neil Brock was a guest of the club.

Honored Mr. Talcott

The spacious Talcott residence at 1910 North Main street was the scene of a happy event last evening, the occasion being Mr. Talcott's seventy-first birthday anniversary. The neighbors, learning it was Mr. Talcott's birthday, planned to surprise him, and were most successful in their efforts.

To the number of about sixty, neighbors and relatives congregated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Beswick, and upon Mr. Talcott's arrival from Los Angeles, where he had been invited to a birthday dinner and matinee by his daughter, Mrs. L. J. Cornell, the crowd marched to the Talcott residence, and the surprise was complete.

After congratulating Mr. Talcott, the company informed him that they had not had dinner, when Mrs. C. H. Meacham invited them to her house. Upon entering the Meacham residence a most attractive sight greeted the eyes, the tables being decorated with the November flower, the chrysanthemum, and the sumptuous feast that followed proved that fairly hands had been at work for some time in its preparation.

At the table in front of the honored guest was a mammoth birthday cake, the gift of his children.

Later all returned to the Talcott residence, where the evening was Mrs. Russell Scott was hostess on Thursday at a charming afternoon party, at which the following guests were present: Mesdames W. F. Lutz, J. C. Briggs, Asa Vandermaast, Geo. Dobson, L. J. Carden, E. S. Gilbert, Fred Parsons, Roscoe Whitted, Lloyd Grubb, Thurston Daniels, Rufus Sanborn, R. R. Shafer, Chas. Kelley, Carl Strock, H. T. Duckett, Miss Eva Newell.

The Scotts' pretty bungalow was decorated with great bouquets of starry white chrysanthemums, which were much admired during the progress of the whist games, that constituted the entertainment for the afternoon.

HARDLY ANY DIFFERENCE IN THE BIDS RECEIVED

All the bids received by the Board of Supervisors on Wednesday for dry goods for the Juvenile Detention Home were remarkably close. There were four firms bidding, Reinhaus Bros., Crookshank Beatty Co., Rankin Dry Goods Co., and Bishop's Dry Goods Co. Not over $4 or $5 separated the four bids. The award was made to Reinhaus Bros. at $122.70. An error in calculations made the bids as reported Wednesday appear to be widely different, when, as a matter of fact, they were all in a bunch.

FRAUDS IN COAL LANDS ALLEGED

Indictments In Alaskan Probe Returned—Californians Named as Claimants

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 4.—Federal indictments charging conspiracy to defraud the United States government out of more than 20,000 acres of Alaska coal lands valued at $200,000,000, were returned in the United States court by the Federal Grand Jury yesterday against six men who control three groups of coal lands in the Kayak mining district in Alaska, which represents 131 claims of 160 acres each.

Among those who are alleged to be assignees of one or more of the claims are: John H. McGraw, formerly governor of Washington (died last July); Governor James N. Gillett, California; Henry T. Oxnard, president of the American Beet Sugar Company; Harry White, former mayor of Seattle.

It is rumored that the government intends to cancel all the coal land filings in Alaska and release land estimated to be worth one billion dollars.

Those indicted are: Former Mayor Harry White of Seattle, now a resident of Los Angeles; Raymond Brown and William L. Dunn of Spokane; Charles M. Doughton, formerly of Spokane, now a resident of Seattle; Charles A. McKenzie, capitalist of Seattle, and Donald A. McKenzie, lobbyist, capitalist and promoter of Washington, D. C., Seattle and Alaska.

The charges are that the six men indicted had agreements with the claimants whereby they were to have a half interest in the claims, which would give them more land than was allowed by coal lands laws of the United States.

I believe thoroughly in Hiram Johnson and Albert J. Wallace, and am firmly of the opinion that both should be elected in order that California shall be freed from the domination of the political bureau of the Southern Pacific. Let the people beware of electing to office any man whom the Southern Pacific newspaper organs really and enthusiastically support.—Geo. C. Pardee, Former Governor of California.

Cottolene

Comes from the Land of Sunshine

The very source of Cottolene inspires confidence in the product. It is pure. It comes from the cottonfields of the Sunny South and from cottonfield to kitchen human hands never touch the oil from which Cottolene is made.

Being a vegetable product, Cottolene is pure—and just as digestible as the purest olive oil. You can never be sure of this when using lard, which is simply hog fat—an animal product.

Cottolene is immeasurably superior to lard from a health standpoint. It makes pure, digestible, nourishing food, and food which any stomach can digest.

The careful, once-posted housewife will use Cottolene in place of lard every time.

Here's a Safe Rule In Political Affairs

Harris Weinstock of Sacramento, a leader in the commercial circles of this state, struck the keynote of this campaign when he said, "It is a safe rule in political affairs to find out which side the special interests are supporting, and then, in self-protection, to support the other side."

Mr. Weinstock has come to Los Angeles during the closing days of the campaign to throw the weight of his influence in favor of Hiram Johnson, because he knows that the Republican candidate for Governor is "on the other side."

"Who is likely to give the people of California the better administration," he asks; "the man who loves the cause better than he does personal political power, or the man who, to secure the crown, is willing to sell his political freedom for a mess of pottage?"

"It is this that has prompted me to give my time, my name, and my energies, without the Republican state convention, in favor of Hiram Johnson; believing as I do, that in following this course I am performing a high civic duty, and one that I owe to my fellows, who, in common with myself, are earnestly striving for good government."

REHEARSALS ARE PROGRESSING FAVORABLY

Ability and Brains Will Combine to Make Fitch's "Her Own Way" Artistic Production

The cast which Ernest Phillips has secured to put on "Her Own Way," on the nights of November 17th and 18th, at the Bell Theater, is without doubt the most clever which has ever been made up of clever local favorites. Such names as John T. Nooyen, R. C. Petersen, Herman Reuter, Al Fields, Florence Thayer McClay, Ida Oderlin, Mrs. Howard, will do much toward convincing Santa Anans of the merit of the players.

The stage direction of Mr. Phillips, owing to his previous training and many successes with amateur plays, shows that knowledge and experience which makes each player do the right thing, in the right way, at the right time. Many so-called amateur plays are "put on" and not played, not by amateurs but by novices, a fact which goes far to make the average "home talent" a thing of "ugliness" and a "sorrow" forever. While not all the people who will interpret "Her Own Way" are professionals, they are, at least, not beginners and have that ease and confidence which comes, no matter how talented a person may be, only after having "been on" many times, and which makes the various scenes of the play stand out, interestingly, artistically.

Clyde Fitch never wrote a brighter, better constructed play than "Her Own Way" or one with so much "heart interest." While written especially for Maxine Elliott, the plot is so well worked out that it never fails to grip the attention of the audience and interests as a good strong play and is not merely a lot of meaningless verbiage depending on the personality of a popular star for its success.

All in all the producing of "Her Own Way" will be an important event and indications are that it will receive the hearty support of the people of Santa Ana.

PATTON ON THE TARIFF

Los Angeles Speaker Condemns New Nationalism and the Present Schedule

George S. Patton of Los Angeles, one of the best known citrus growers and Democrats of Southern California, spoke to an audience at Spurgeon's Hall. A large share of his address was in regard to the tariff. He ended with an appeal for Theodore A. Bell.

He declared the representatives of the trusts wrote the last tariff bill. He said that after Roosevelt returned he was expected to do something vigorous in regard to that bill, but Roosevelt has appeared on both sides of it. He denounced it one place and voted for its endorsement at the New York convention.

"The doctrine of new nationalism promulgated by Roosevelt is the most dangerous doctrine yet promulgated," said the speaker. "The new in it is not good and the good in it is not new. This doctrine favors centralized despotism. The Democratic party will fight the centralization of government to be controlled by a strong man.

"Today we stand at the threshold of a great struggle with the interests. The whole question lies in the fact that the trusts lie entrenched behind a high protective tariff. An unfair and unjust tariff is the question at issue.

"Let us see how it works. A congressman strives to get duty on the industry in which his district is especially interested. The result is that he becomes a petty, greedy trader instead of a representative of the people. We got a half-cent on lemons. What did we pay? The affirmative vote of Senator Flint on everything in the schedule, and to the surprise of all of us the railroad waited only three weeks before it took all of the half-cent that Flint had secured on lemons.

"We got a raise of one-half cent on lemons, and on the other hand we pay higher prices for the thousand commodities of which we are consumers."

The speaker predicted Democratic success all over the country next Tuesday.

W. L. Duggan, chairman of the county central committee, presided.

We are exclusive agents for the Macey Sectional Bookcases—the kind with the non-binding door guides.

Real Seal Hand
Bags for $5.00

Without question we have the best Hand Bag values ever offered in Santa Ana, $1.50, $2.50, $3.50, $5.00 and upward. Don't think that you must go to the city for the best high priced bags, you can pay more for them in the city, it is true, but you won't get anything better.

Just look at the style of these bags—see the neat shapes—notice the way they are made—see the neat frames and strong clasps,—notice the strong serviceable handles and see the way they are put on—look at the leather lining and notice the quality of it—and last but not of least importance you will find a good serviceable all seal coin purse inside. The whole comprising a rare value indeed at $5.00. We venture to say you have paid double for bags no better—in fact even today you would have to hunt a long time to find a better value at less than double our price.

An Honest Judge

California should congratulate itself upon the fact that it will have the opportunity this fall to vote for WILLIAM P. LAWLOR for Justice of its Supreme Court. Lawlor was the judge before whom Abe Ruef was being tried when Francis J. Heney was shot down. He has been the target for the bitterest hatred on the part of criminal and powerful interests. He has emerged from it all with unimpaired judicial vision, serene and unperturbed.—Editorial in Collier's for October 29.

"I DEFY" SAYS THEODORE "THAT'S EASY" SAYS HIRAM

In a statement made at Los Angeles last week, Theodore A. Bell said: "I defy him (Johnson) and his friends to point out one word or one syllable that I have uttered in the campaign of a disparaging character."

The task is not difficult. It is only necessary to call attention to a few of Mr. Bell's statements throughout this campaign. As early as September 19, at San Jose, Bell said, referring to Johnson:

"Throw your safeguard around the new convert."

On October 5, at Fresno, Bell said, knowing that Johnson had always been a consistent enemy of the Southern Pacific:

"Did anybody hear the voice of Hiram cry aloud for political freedom four years ago? He is an eleventh hour convert."

At Modesto, October 6, Bell said of Johnson:

"They are most desperately opposed to the railroad system now, but four years ago they were yeomen in the service of the Southern Pacific system. You never heard Johnson come out against Herrin politically until Chester Rowell became disgusted with the collar he had been wearing and brought Johnson to the front."

At Yreka, October 1, Bell said, directing his questions to Johnson:

"If your participation in the San Francisco graft prosecutions was inspired solely by patriotic motives, why did you desert the prosecution to defend J. Dalzell Brown, who wrecked the California Safe Deposit & Trust Company and brought misery to ten thousand men, women and children who were depositors in that bank?"

Bell knows this statement to have been false, and the evidence of his guilty knowledge has been published in this paper.

At Woodland, October 15, Bell said, referring to Johnson's connection with the graft prosecution:

"Johnson never volunteered. It was a case of twenty dollar gold pieces with him."

He knew at the time that Johnson never received a dollar for his services in the trial of Abe Reuf which resulted in his conviction.

At Vallejo on October 12, Bell definitely took up the method of attack originated by the San Francisco Post and the paid supporters of the San Francisco grafters, by asking a series of misleading questions, by charging Johnson with mercenary motives in his entire connection with the graft prosecution.

One of the first campaign documents issued by the Democratic State Central Committee, through its press agent, who was the personal appointee of Bell, was this editorial statement from the Roseville Register:

"It is only a short while since the populist Hiram, the son of Grove L., stood in the same position as his father does today—a plant and willing tool of corporate interests. It is not unlikely had the corporations been willing to continue the distribution of the mazzuma, the State would never have witnessed the spectacle presented by Hiram, the reformed reformer."

H. Maurer was in this neighborhood Tuesday and Wednesday, greeting old friends.

Rev. and Mrs. Cockrum were in Los Angeles Monday, Mrs. Cockrum attending the annual meeting of the Missionary Society of the Fourth District of Los Angeles Presbyterian church. Rev. Cockrum attended the meeting of the Presbyterian Ministers' Union of the city, which was held at the Bible Institute.

DEMOCRATS SUPPORT JOHN- SON

Hiram W. Johnson, Republican candidate for governor, is receiving the earnest support of a number of the leading Democrats and Independents of this state, who believe that he more truly represents the principles of progressive reform than does the Democratic candidate, Theodore Bell. These men have aligned themselves with the Republican nominee in this campaign because of their distrust of the interests back of Bell. Here is what some of them say:

Matt I. Sullivan of San Francisco—I believe him (Johnson) to be a better representative of true Democracy than Mr. Bell. All Democrats who regard party principles more than party name should do as I intend to do, and vote for Mr. Johnson for governor at the coming election.

Charles Wesley Reed—No matter how much he may admire Bell, no matter how much he may have confidence in his leadership, the independent voter must cast his ballot for Johnson if he desires to make his vote count heaviest for the moral regeneration of California.

Curtis H. Lindley, President of the San Francisco Bar Association—Hiram Johnson is the only man now before the people of California who is big enough to meet the great political crisis now confronting the state.

Henry Eickhoff—I favor the election of Hiram Johnson because I believe that his election will, more certainly than would that of his opponent, insure the political emancipation of the state of California, for which all right-minded citizens of this state are sincerely solicitous. I think he ought to have the ardent support of voters irrespective of party.

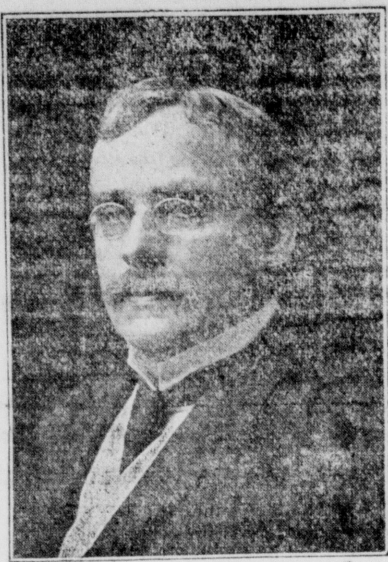

James A. Johnston, former supervisor of San Francisco—This city, this state, and the nation need in public life, men of his (Johnson's) type—men who place a principle above political gladhanding; as much as is needed a citizenship that places principle above party name.

The nomination of Mr. Johnson for Governor was a great triumph for popular government and the platform you have adopted puts the California Republicans in the front in this great progressive movement. It is of concern to every believer of progress and reform that you should succeed.—Joseph L. Bristow, United States Senator.

It would be a mighty inspiration for the rest of the country if California assumes the leadership of the West in the great progressive movement.—Albert B. Cummins, United States Senator.

I sincerely hope that Mr. Johnson and the entire progressive ticket will be elected.—Robert M. La Follette, United States Senator.

A. J. WALLACE,
Candidate for Lieutenant Governor

VOTE FOR WALLACE

A. J. Wallace, Southern California's popular candidate for lieutenant-governor, has been made the object of a vicious attack by the liquor interests of the state, in alliance with all the other special interests. The character of this attack and the men behind it should arouse all friends of decency in politics and governmental affairs to an effort to give Mr. Wallace an overwhelming majority next Tuesday.

Hiram W. Johnson's election as governor of California is a certainty. It is important, however, that the lieutenant governor should be in thorough sympathy with the great principles which he advocates, and for this reason the best interests of the state demand that A. J. Wallace be given a big majority.

A vote for A. J. Wallace for lieutenant governor is a rebuke to the interests that are seeking to debauch the politics of this state.

A. J. Wallace, Southern California's candidate for lieutenant governor is charged by some of the hostile newspapers of the north with being a state divisionist. The facts are that Mr. Wallace was largely instrumental in taking that question out of the control of a radical element that was seeking to force it upon the people, and allowing it to die a natural death. Mr. Wallace does not favor state division, and the charge to that effect that is being made against him is one of wilful misrepresentation.

Unless the Democratic opponents of A. J. Wallace, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor can find more substantial grounds for attacking him than that he does not drink or use tobacco, the decent voters of this state will see to it that he is elected by a big majority.

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE

The Register has been requested by more than one subscriber to explain Amendment No. 1, on the separation of the sources of state and local revenues. To the best of our knowledge and belief this amendment ought to be adopted. The opinion of students of taxation and the judgment of well-informed men generally do not agree on this question; but from its own study of the matter, and basing its opinion also on the best information obtainable—the best evidence submitted—the Register believes Amendment No. 1 should be approved.

The purpose of this amendment is to equalize the burden of taxation and to simplify and strengthen the administration of our tax laws, and to that end:

1. To compel the annual payment by public service corporations of $3,500,000 more in taxes than they have paid heretofore, thereby saving that amount to other taxpayers.
2. To end inequalities between counties as to state taxes.
3. To make the burden of taxes on all kinds of property equal, relieving real estate of its present unjust proportion.
4. To substitute a mathematical rule (percentage of gross receipts) for the exercise of judicial discretion (as fixing valuations) by assessors. This will give certainty and insure against political corruption.

The reason this will free the counties from the State Board of Equalization is because the state will get its revenue from the general properties and will no longer care how property is assessed. Corporations will have to pay their share of the burdens because they will pay on their property as a unit, not on valuations made by various assessors, some of whom the corporations find it easy to corrupt.

Corporations will pay on gross receipts, the fairest method in the world, and when they pay their full share real estate will bear a smaller share. The Southern Pacific does not like this Amendment No. 1 a little bit, but that shouldn't prejudice

Strong Endorsement for Congressman S. C. Smith

The San Diego Union makes the visit of Congressman Smith to that city the occasion for a strong presentation of his claims for re-election. After reviewing some of the important things he has accomplished for his district, the Union says:

Is there any reason why a district that has been thus admirably served should substitute for the representative who rendered the service, a new man, virtually an unknown quantity?

About all that is known in regard to Mr. Irving of Riverside is that he is a Democrat. This fact naturally suggests the question whether even if it were desired that Mr. Smith should not have another term, the district could afford to take the risk of choosing a Democrat in his place. Common prudence, to say nothing about common sense, makes answer. The prosperity of this district is largely dependent upon the protective tariff. It has just received largely increased tariff protection for lemons, one of its leading industries. Mr. Irving may believe in protection for his district, but the party with which he is affiliated opposes protection for any district. In a House dominated by Republicans, friends of protection, would Mr. Irving, sitting on the Democratic side, be in a position to obtain favorable tariff consideration for a district that had declared for free trade. And should the Democrats control the next House, and break down the protective wall, as they would certainly attempt to do, would he be able to induce them to spare that portion of it which shields his district? That is to say, in a Democratic, free trade House of Representatives, would Mr. Irving of Riverside be stronger than his party in that body? From the standpoint of protection, then, there may be much to lose, and there is certainly nothing to gain, by the election of Mr. Irving.

It is well to understand, too, that this tariff question is no campaign bugaboo. President Taft favors a gradual revision of schedules as the tariff commission shall make recommendations from time to time. It is almost certain that in the not distant future the lemon duty will be again considered. The interests that fought the half cent increase recently made, will seek a rehearing and will doubtless get it. Other protective duties in which this district is deeply concerned, will also have to run the congressional gauntlet. And yet there are some persons who favor sending a Democrat to the House in the place of Mr. Smith. Could the silly season itself ever make a more absurd suggestion?

Representative Smith has earned a re-election. The people of this district cannot afford to lose his services. To elect his Democratic competitor would be to court disaster liberally. The voters of San Diego county are not going to indulge in any such folly.

(Authorized Announcement.)

West is Especially Well Qualified for Dist. Att'y

L. A. West, Republican candidate for district attorney, will make a first class man in the position. He is fully qualified by training, personality and experience for the work that the office is called upon to do. He began the practice of law in Estill county, Ky., in 1896, and in that county he was elected on the Republican ticket and served two four-year terms as county attorney, which office corresponds to our district attorney. In Orange county he has appeared in several hard fought criminal cases and his understanding and handling of the law and his arguments before the juries he addressed bespoke keenness and unusual ability.

He has been allied with public movements of a moral nature wherever he has been. Gentlemen at all times, he shows one of the necessary qualifications for public service. No man can say he was ever discourteously or unfairly treated by L. A. West.

West is recognized by attorneys as an able, energetic lawyer, a student of legal problems and well versed and unusually careful in the preparation of legal papers. If elected he will fill the office acceptably. Of that there is no question.

(Authorized Announcement.)

Metzgar for Treasurer is a Dead Sure Winner

The Republican candidate for County Treasurer, who was nominated by such an overwhelming plurality, has been making a vigorous campaign, and today J. C. Metzgar is perhaps as well and favorably known to the voters of the county as any man in the county.

Mr. Metzgar has proved a good campaigner. He is every inch a gentleman; a man of most pleasing personality, keen intelligence, thoroughly competent as a business man, and of the highest order of political and personal integrity.

There is a saying that a man "is not without honor, save in his own country," which is to say he is honored only by those who do not know him. Not so with Mr. Metzgar, as his primary vote showed. Prior to the primary, Mr. Metzgar was little known in the county outside of Santa Ana; but in this city he was well known, and in this city he got nearly all the votes cast.

Metzgar is a sure winner.

the humble owner of a small home against it.

One of the strongest supporters of the amendment is Prof. Carl C. Plehn, the state's expert upon taxation, secretary of the State Commission on Revenue and Taxation, on which commission he was associated with Governor Gillett and Senator J. B. Curtin. Prof. Plehn now fills the chair of economics at the University of California. He is the great authority on economics in this state, and wrote the report of the State Commission on Revenues and Taxation.

Politics in no wise enters into this question. It is simply and purely a matter of economics. The purpose is to throw the burden of the entire state taxation on the shoulders of the corporations, which now escape a vast amount of taxation which they rightfully should bear. Absolute relief from state taxation for the owner of property is the thing sought, and this can be brought about at once by the ratification of this amendment.

The Associated Realty Boards, in which are included all the local real estate boards from one end of the state to the other, represents interests amounting to hundreds of millions of dollars in property, is making a strong campaign in favor of this amendment. It is supported not only by the Realty Federation, but has among its proponents and strongest advocates the State Grange, the State Board of Equalization, State Controller A. B. Nye, the Commonwealth Club, numerous educational and civic organizations, and a majority of the leading newspapers throughout the state.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

This apparently is the season of declines in a number of staple commodities. Sugar was the first to take a steep decline. Yesterday the local millers announced lower prices in all grades of wheat flour and many of the compound flours and meals also dropped in sympathy. These declines in breadstuffs are occasioned by the fact that wheat and other cereals have been on the decline in all parts of the country for some time. The drop has been gradual but sure, with reports of big crops and heavy harvests in nearly every grain growing country of the world. The price in best grade of flour, blended stock, as reported yesterday, was $5.80 a barrel. From that they run down as low as $4.40, which is the lowest price prevalent on flour in nearly two years. Wheat is quoted at $1.75 a hundred. Corn is selling at $1.60 and oats at $1.80 a hundred.

There were no changes in eggs. The demand for locals was very good, and prices firm, with another cent added on San Francisco quotations. Receipts of the day were 80 cases.

Butter was steady and sales normal. Receipts of the commodity were 34, 716 pounds.

Cheese arrivals were 1331 pounds. A number of declines were reported, practically all in eastern varieties.

Potatoes sold fast. There was a better call for spuds in the morning than there has been in a number of days past, and prices were stimulated as a result. Receipts of spuds were 2462 sacks.

Onion arrivals were 320 sacks. They were firm and the wholesale quotation on them is gradually creeping back to $1.75 under the heavy call.

There were no bean receipts reported. The demand for beans was good. Sweet potatoes were in fair call. Arrivals were 344 sacks.

Apple arrivals were 6000 boxes. There was an upward trend in the apple market, and from 10 to 25 cents was tacked to many of the prevailing quotations.

Dried fruit prices were all boosted fractionally, from 1/2 to 1 cent a pound. Prunes, size 30 to 40, sold at 11 cents; the smallest size sold at 6 1/2 cents. New figs in 6-ounce cartons were up to $2 in small quantities.

Vegetable prices were a trifle unstable, some going up and others down. Bunch goods were in a number of varieties reported declining. Crate stock, on the other hand, was looking up.

The demand for fish was very good. Yellowtail, barracuda and halibut were the best sellers of the day of the larger varieties. Sardines, smelt and sand dabs were the small fish obtainable. Carp were plentiful.
